Intense excitement continues. This norming the whole city was in arms, but to further outbreak occurred. Martial law ontinues in force. The entire populace re united in one sentiment, and that is for the defense of the Streethe. are united in one sentiment, and that is for he of the State, the City, and the South. The minute men have taken down their flag, and join in defense of the City. The bridges on the Northern, Central and Philladelphia Railroads have been burnt. It is reported that the New York Seventh Regiment, and the Philladelphia volunteers are at Havre de Grace. It is supposed they will impress boats there, to take them to Annapolis, whence they will endeavor to go to Washington. Many scouting parties of Baltimornans are in the ontskirts of the city, moving in various directions. Col. Brush, of the fifty-third tskirts of the city, moving in various sections. Col. Business is wholly suspended. The people are securing their valuables. The range the sovings banks has diminished.

There is great excitement at Norfolk.—The volunteers on the steamer Specific. Armstrong, member of the Richmond Convention, stepped on the platform and shouted, "too in, boys! first blood for Baltimore! The I. S. troops had fired into an unarmed crowd of citizens, and killed 12; only four soldiers were killed, and every man in Baltimore was now going to stand by his State, and shed his last drop of blood sooner than have Abolition hordes come down there to murder them."

The mod cheered him, and the Conductor, finding nothing could be done, told the mob that the Company would carry none but Southern men, and started the train. There is great excitement at Norfolk.— The volunteers on the steamer Spalding, to reinforce the Government works, were compelled to put to sea. The Mayors of Norfolk and Portsmonth have issued proc-lamations asking the chilems to maintain order until regularly organized under leaders. The Purpose and Policy of the Sub-mission Leaders.

We feel justified by facts of public record in charging directly, as we do, that the to the her on permanently to the new Union of free States that is rising on the ruins of the Constitution and the Republican system formed by our fathers in 1788-to sepflarity of their justitutions, in the sympably najust and unconstitutional" demands persisted in have broken up the Union and wholly subverted and destroyed the Government of the Constitution.

This object has been aimed at consistently and without interruption in all they have done, and in all they have refused to do, since the 6th day of November last; and their plans for the accomplishment of this iniquitous purpose date back, we have reason to believe, to a period long anterior to the election of Mr. LINCOLN to the Pres-

Their policy has been to prevent, if pos sible, any concerted and united action by the Slave States to secure their Constitusional rights, not, perhaps, because they really desired a dissolution of the Unlon, which their action was rendering more certain and inevitable each day, but becanse, we now think, they then knew the North never would under any circumstan ces give us justice, and they wanted to defeat any thing that would, when the honrarrived, unite the Slave States in any movement that might be deemed necessary: knowing the accret purposes of the Black Republicans, and foreseeing their enccess, they have long labored to divide the South, so that one part of the Slave States might be cut up by Abolition mercenaries and reduced, as they hoped, to subjection to Abolition sway, while the Border Slave States were to be subjected to Abolition dominion by the nower of an Abolitlouized public sentlment and the fear of the consequences of any attempt to preserve their independence

This is the programme of results at which they have simed.

When, more than a year ago, after the outbreak at Harper's Ferry, and when the iniquitons purpose of the Abolition leaders were being developed in the indorsement of HELPER's atroclous book and otherwise, some of the Southern States, South Caroli na certainly, asked a conference of the Slave States, in which something might he agreed on for the accurity of their people and the maintenance of their equality and State Sovereignty. Had this been agreed to by ail the Slave States, one of two results would have been seenred; either the united stand thus taken would have checked Northern aggression and so saved the Union, or, disunion being Inevitable, the Slave States would have acted together.

The proposition for such a Conference was denonneed as treasonable by those now leading the Submissionists, and their firm and determined opposition in the d the overture rder States preven from being entertained and considered. They succeeded then in preventing a Union of the Southern States, by which the Confederacy might have been preserved, or, ortherwise, war between the sectious would have been avoided. After the election of Mr. LINCOLN and of troops asked from Kentucky the triumph of the party pledged to hos. President, and insist that she shall take no tility to the institutions and property of part in a war waged, as they maintain fifteen States, there was one chance and against the Commonwealth! but one to preserve the Union, or, that falling, to prevent war - a Conference among the Slave States, an agreement upon an ultimatum to be presented to the North, and a united demand for their conetitutional rights, their separation from the Free States being made the consequence of the rejection of their proposi-

This might have, even then, secured for the South such guaranties as were uccessary to their security: we believe the solid front thus presented would have, at least, secured a peaccable separation.

The leaders of the present Northeru party in Kentucky veheurently opposed it; and in this State, as elsewhere, the Idea was necessarily abandoned.

liaving thus defeated the last proposition that offered a reasonable prospect of suceess, they have labored with unernpulous zeal to paralyze and disarm Kentucky.

Their policy since then has been to satisfy the people and inspire them with unfounded hopes by any expedient or device, however temporary It might be, by which to gain time for the Abolition Presi- at Madison, Indiana, so as to command

They refused to arm the State; and now demand that she shall crouch, and kneel, war is being waged against Kentneky; and and beg for mercy, because she has not the means to defend herself from attacks Claiming to be the only friends of the Union, they constantly followed that Confederacy of States, to the common de conrec of action that most encouraged those whose fanuticism and wrong-doing

In this we were mistaken. Notwithstanding these gentlemen know hat the entire population of the Free frenzy against the people of all the Slave States; although they see unmistakable evidences of this in the seizure of Southern property, the assaults upon Southern men, and upon all those suspected of Southern sympathies, by Northern mobs; in the tender of millions of money without price, without security, without interest, and without conditions, to the Free State authorities settled purpose of the Submission lenders by Northern banks and bankers; in the unamong ue is and has been to separate Ken- exampled rush of volunteers to the stantucky from the other Southern States, and | dard raised to antijugate the Southern people; in the Interference with, and, in many ustances, the absolute prohibition of shipments of breadstuffs and provisions from the Free to the Shave States by ille arate her from those States to which she is | gal, but yet absolute, authority-although united in interest, in position, in the sini- these men see and know all this, yet true to their instinctive hatred of the South and thies of their people, and to associate her | Southern interests, they continue to ob. with those other States whose "broken struct every effort to place the State of faith," and "bad fellowship,", and "palpa- Kentucky in a position to maintain her overelgnty.

They, indeed, go even further than this, for they invite assault by procialming her defenseless condition and their intention to keep her so, if in their power to do it! It is well known that as the Legislatur

Now, It is all right for a bank, when making an ordinary loan, to look to securiccasions when banks and bankers might e supposed to rise to something higher than this, and to feel patriotle, and this is

If ever there was a time when a little and occasion, and we trust and believe that those who control the binks will not hesitate to act promptly, liberally, and patriotically in this emergency.

It is humiliating to know and to publish the fact that there is my man, or any set of men, amongst us so lost to every feel lug of State pride, so destitute of State attachment, or so devoted to the Lincoln policy of Southern subjugation, as to oppose a bank loan to enable her anthorities to place the State in a position of independent strength.

Do those gentlemen expect to find support in this policy? Do they not know that they are opposed in this by Mr. ('rittenden, Mr. Guthrie, and Mr. Dixon of their own party, and by nine-tenths of the intelligence of the State? Do they supose that the people of Kentucky will turn raitors to the soil of their birth and choice and meanly abandon it to any who dare in vade it? If one of these gentlemen were in hls native State of Connecticut, or an other in his of Indlana, or another in his own Judea, when endangered, as Kentneky is, would they still luvite invasion by re fusing to provide for defense? Let all those who love Kentucky, let all those who ove their own State before and above all ther States, rebuke the action of these disloyal men and call upon the banks to stand by the State, discarding all political considerations. Their Idea of Loyalty.

The Submissioulets maintain that the Uulon still exists; that Kentucky is yet a part of the Union: that Kentuckians still owe obedience to the legal mandates of the Federal authorities; that a war declared against the Free State Administration at Washington Is a war against Kentucky and yet, they appland the action of ou Governor in relusing to furnish the quota

The statement of the position demon strates its absurdity. We give the language of the Journal, which says: There is no cause of quarrel between us of Kenneky and the people of Ohlo, Indiana, and Illinois. The Southern Confederacy has declared war against those States, and not less against Kentucky, for Kentucky, as much as any other State, is still a member of the Confederacy of the United a member of the Confederacy of the United States; and it is natural and proper that the non-slaveholding States of the border should deprecate the secession of Kentucky, at such a time, luto a Confederacy that has declared war against her and them alike.

"There is no cause of quarrel between us of Kentucky and the people of Ohio Indiaua, and Iliiuols!"

Why, then, are military camps being formed at Cincinnati and at Cairo? Why, then, are citizens of Kentucky mistreated, insulted, mobbed in the streets and by the people of Cincinnati?
Why were goods belonging to citizens of Kentucky seized at Steubenville, Ohio and appropriated to the use of that State Why was a formidable battery erected dent to get into place and arrange to carry onr own river and point its guns at our shore? Why are armed men sent within our own borders without the consent of our authorltles? And yet all these things have been done, ence proposition; and now have ignored or are being done, and the Journal has no word of condemnation of those who, without cause of quarrel, thus threaten,

"The Southern Confederacy has declared war against these States, AND NOT LESS AGAINST KENTUCKY, for Kentucky, as much as any other State, in still a member of the Confederacy of the United States."

This is the Journal's position. And yet it advises armed neutrality; and thinks the Governor did right in refusing troops to the Government of the Union of which it believes Kentucky Is still a mem-

A declaration of war against the Govern ment at Washington Is a declaration of war against Kentucky; the Confederate States have declared war against the Goverument at Washington; therefore, the Journal argues, the Confederate States have declared war against Kentucky! This is the Journal's argument to prove that yet it says she should not furnish a man or give a dollar to ald in her own defense It malntains that Kentucky is part of fense of which she should not contribut one dollar or one man, in a war waged as bear the burthens which it believes are legitimately placed on her nud to fight battles which It thinks are her own ! If the position taken by the Journal in the extract we have given is correct, that

"armed neutrality." If it were right in the position thus laken, there would be but one course for Kentucky to pursue-her path would be son to advise any other; it would be her

Every gun store was emptied. They beleved that Northerner's lives were not worth an hour's purchase when the next gun in war is fired. They said the Union lines were all fleeing for their lives. DR. B. HEAMORTH:—
My Dear Sir-1 am now seventy-nine years old, and for the last twenty-eight years have been a constant user of your Vagetable Universal Pills when sirk, fully realizing the advantage of enforcing purgation with a medicine, which, while these times I have always found your pills a sur remedy, giving me not only health but strength. I or usider them, not only health but strength, but also as a tonle. I have never during these last twenty-right years used any other medicine whatever, being convinced, by experience, that aons was as good. Brandreth's fills have also been free and the property and the property of the v ns. d by my neighbors in every kind of sickness and have been never known to fail when promptly saministated. Yours troly, NATH ANIEL HYATT, Ju-tice of the Peace for 40 years in Westchester Co., N. Y.

THE RIVER was falling fast yesterday, with between 18 and 20 feet water on the falls at dusk. During the previous 24 hours the water had receded two and a half feet at the wharf, to the great relief of the denizons along Water street. The weather has turned very warm, with high winds prevailing Sunday night.

At Cincinnatl at noon yesterday the river had fallen altogether some six feet, and at Pittsburg it was falling, with nine feet water in the channel.

The Mississippl at St. Louis continues to recede slowly, and as all the upper rivers are falling, the overflow in the Lower Mississippl is likely to be of short duration.

The Peytona, hence for New Orleans, assed Memphis Saturday, all right. The Atlantic, Capt. McGill, arrived it New Orleans on Thursday, with a full oad, and left that port on her return to continue, on Saturday evening. She will se due on Friday next, and returns to New Delegace on Saturday.

The coast packet, Dillgeut, Capt. Cobb, came in from Troy and Leavenworth yesterday, and landed at the upper wharf, at the foot of Second street. She returns to Troy and all way places to-day at two o'clock.

The fast Lancaster, No. 3, is the regular and panetual packet to-day for all points up the river as far as Carrollton.—She starts at noon.

The monster Jacob Strader, the low pressure, is the mail and passenger packet for Cincinnuit and the East at noor looday. The clerk, R. S. Dunning, is courteous and attentive.

For New Obleans.—The fleet packet, Louisville, Capt. Holleroft, takes her departure to New Orleans this evening. She starts from the upper wharf, providing comfortably for passengers, and in charge of skillful officers, who are bound to make the boat very popular in the trade. She has ample deck room for stock, and ca pacity for 1,000 tons of freight. The clerk Mr. Moody, is courteous and attentive to Slaughter of Southern Troops, Ou Saturday a gentleman, direct from lemphis by railroad, passed through the ity, on route for New York. He left Mem phis on Friday, and says he saw a private dispatch there, stating that on Thursday, Lieutenaut Slemmer, of Fort Pickens, land ordered the Confederate troops to stop throwing up batteries with which to bombard him. They declined obedience and he opened fire upon them, and in the course of the first day's firing, three hundred of them were killed. The dispatch was not permitted to be published in Memphis. It will be remembered that we have not had a word by telegraph from Fort Pickens for some time, while it is known that Fort Pickens has been reinforced and its commander directed to cause the building of sand batteries to cease. The chances are that there has been, and perhaps still is, a desperate stringgle between Pickens and the hostile forts and batteries. is on Friday, and says he saw a privat Mob Law in Cincinnati.
